Words of Wisdom

He who remembers from day to day what he has yet to learn, and from month to month what he has learned already, may be said to have a love of learning.

K'ung Fu-Tzu 551-479 BC
From, The Analects

He who learns but does not think, is lost. He who thinks but does not learn is in great danger.

From The Analects, Book II: 15

We judge ourselves by what we feel capable of doing, while others judge us by what we have already done.

- Henry Wadsworth Longfellow
1807-1882 from Kavanagh, 1865

Only a life lived for others is worthwhile.

- Albert Einstein 1879-1955

Affirmation of life is the spiritual act by which man ceases to live unreflectively and begins to devote himself to his life with reverence in order to raise it to its true value. To affirm life is to deepen, to make more inward, and to exalt the will to live.

- Albert Schweitzer 1875-1965

If you want one year of prosperity, grow grain. If you want ten years of prosperity, grow trees. If you want one hundred years of prosperity, grow people.

- Chinese Proverb

Character is like a tree and reputation like its shadow. The shadow is what we think of it; the tree is the real thing.

- Abraham Lincoln (1809-1865)

You cannot teach a man anything.

You can only help him discover it within himself.

- Galileo Galilei (1564-1642)

Plans are only good intentions unless they immediately degenerate into hard work.

- Peter Drucker
