You should not be content with sitting down to defend yourselves against evil habits, but should also be active in doing good. By 'doing good' I mean making yourselves useful and doing small kindnesses to other people - whether they are friends or strangers.

If you want one year of prosperity, grow grain.
 If you want ten years of prosperity, grow trees.
 If you want one hundred years of prosperity, grow people.
 - Chinese Proverb

Character is like a tree and reputation like its shadow.
 The shadow is what we think of it; the tree is the real thing.
 - Abraham Lincoln 1809-1865

You cannot teach a man anything.
 You can only help him discover it within himself.
 - Galileo Galilei
 1564-1642

Plans are only good intentions unless they immediately degenerate into hard work.
 - Peter Drucker 1909 -

If you shut one eye, you do not hear everything.

- Swiss Proverb

Computers are useless. They can only give you answers.

- Pablo Picasso
1882-1973

He who remembers from day to day what he has yet to learn, and from month to month what he has learned already, may be said to have a love of learning.

- K'ung Fu-Tzu
551-479 BC

From, The Analects

He who learns but does not think, is lost. He who thinks but does not learn is in great danger.

From The Analects, Book II:15

We judge ourselves by what we feel capable of doing, while others judge us by what we have already done.

- Henry Wadsworth Longfellow
1807-1882
from Kavanagh, 1865

Only a life lived for others is worthwhile.

- Albert Einstein 1879-1955

Affirmation of life is the spiritual act by which man ceases to live unreflectively and begins to devote himself to his life with reverence in order to raise it to its true value. To affirm life is to deepen, to make more inward, and to exalt the will to live.

- Albert Schweitzer
1875-1965

Taking care of our planet is like taking care of our houses. Since we human 'beings come from Nature, there is no point in our going against nature, which is why I say the environment is not .a matter of religion or ethics or morality. These are luxuries, since we can survive without them. But we will not survive if we continue to go against nature.

- Tenzin Gyatso
1935 -

You never conquer mountains. You only conquer yourself.

- Jim Whitaker

Two men were walking along a crowded sidewalk in a downtown business area. Suddenly one exclaimed, "Listen to the lovely sound of that cricket! But the other could not hear. He asked his companion how ne could detect the sound of a cricket amidst the din of people and traffic. The first man, who was a zoologist, had trained himself to listen to the voices of nature, but he did not explain. He simply took a coin out of his pocket and dropped it on the sidewalk, whereupon a dozen people began to look about them. "We hear," he said, "what we listen for. "

- Baghwan Shree Rajueesh
1931- 1990

Nearness to nature ... keeps the spirit sensitive to impressions not commonly felt, and in touch with the unseen powers.

- Ohiyesa, Santee Dakota
Dr. Charles Alexander Eastman
1858- 1939

You see things; and you say, "Why?"

But I dream things that never were; and I say "Why not?"

- George Bernard Shaw
1856-1950

from Back to Methuselah, 1921, Act 1.
